

Cork

CORK FLOORING

Renewable resource, comfortable, forgiving

Cork has many unique inherent properties which make it an ideal floor covering for most applications. The product is constructed from the bark of the Cork Oak tree in Portugal, which is harvested every 8 years. Cork is insect resistant, anti-static, will not spread flame, and is naturally insulating both thermally and acoustically.

Cork's forgiving nature, makes it an ideal selection for high-traffic areas or homes with animals.
